

Contents

Gerhard Besier, Francesca Piombo, Katarzyna Stokłosa
Preface	7
Frank Vollmer
Revolutionary Discipline Through Totalitarian Consensus. Dynamistic Modernism and Violence in the Political Culture of Italian Fascism	11
Kilian Bartikowski
Italy's Abyssinia Campaign 1935–1936 and Italian Colonial Policy from the National Socialist Viewpoint	33
Waltraud Sennebogen
Communism as a Common Enemy? Horthy's Hungary, National Socialist Germany and Fascist Italy	41
Irina Kotkina
The State and Fate of Classical Opera under Totalitarianism: Problematical Framework	51
Romain Ducoulombier
The Origins of a 'Radical Sect': Violence, Antifascism and the Nation at the Birth of Communism in France (1917–1925)	69
Matthias Lemke
Talking About a Revolution. Democratic Socialism and Its Discussion of Social Transformation	83
Claudia Pohl
European States Dealing With Extremist Political Parties. Prohibition of Political Parties as an Instrument of Repressive State Policy	95
Names	111
Contributors	115