

Contents

Introduction	VII
Section I: Reconciliation: Discourses and Constraints
André du Pisani
The Discursive Limits of SWAPO's Dominant Discourses on Anti-colonial Nationalism in Postcolonial Namibia – a First Exploration ...	1
Heribert Weiland
Namibia 1989–1994: Hopes for a Peaceful and Democratic Development – Namibians' Opinions and Attitudes	41
William A. Lindeke
Transformation, Hegemony, and Reconciliation in the Education and Security Sectors in Namibia's Transition from Prolonged Collective Violence	63
Gerhard Töttemeyer
The Role of the Church in Namibia: Fostering a Discourse on Reconciliation	103
Volker Winterfeldt
Postcolonial Dynamics of Social Structure in Namibia	139
Phanuel Kaapama
Politics of the Land Question in Post Settler Colonial Africa: Some Comparative Explorations of Zimbabwe, Kenya, Namibia and South Africa	171
Reinhart Kössler
Genocide and Reparations: Dilemmas and Exigencies in Namibian-German Relations	215

Section II: Communal Resilience

Napandulwe Shiweda

Towards a Visual Construction of Omhedi:

C.H.L. Hahn and A.M. Duggan-Cronin's Photographs 245

Johann Müller

The Ovaherero in Botswana and their Namibian Brothers: Transnational Cooperation between the Diaspora and Motherland in the Fight against Apartheid

281

Pamela Claassen

Reconciling Violent Resource Conflicts in the Kavango Region of Namibia

305

Section III: The Presence of the Past

Memory Biwa

Stories of the Patchwork Quilt: an Oral History Project of the Nama-German War in Southern Namibia

331

Reinhart Kössler

Political Intervention and the Image of History: Communal Memory Events in Central and Southern Namibia

371

Justine Hunter

Dealing with the Past in Namibia:

Getting the Balance Right between Justice and Sustainable Peace? .. 403

Notes on Contributors

435

Acknowledgements

438