

Table of contents

Notes on Contributors .....	7
1. Introduction: How to Explore National Interest and Why Petr Drulák .....	11
2. National Interest and its Legitimacy: An Attempt at a New Approach Petr Kratochvíl .....	21
Case studies
3. The Demand Side of the EU Enlargement: Understanding our Neighbours Vít Beneš .....	35
4. Europeanization of the Czech Environmental Policy Mats Braun .....	53
Discourse analysis
5. Eastern Promises? Czech Ambiguity in the European Neighbourhood Petr Kratochvíl and Ondřej Horký .....	71
6. The Fortunes of the Czech Discourse on the Missile Defense Nik Hynek and Vít Střítecký .....	87
Grounded Theory
7. Czech Foreign Policy in Austrian and Slovak Newspapers Michal Kořan .....	105
8. The Czech Perspective on the Future of the EU: No Consensus in the Offing Mats Braun .....	127
Ethnography
9. The European Neighbourhood Policy: How Does National Identity Make its Way to Brussels? Elsa Tulmets .....	145
10. Human Rights Promotion: Czech Republic and the EU Věra Veselá .....	161
11. Conclusions: National Interests in Foreign Policy Mats Braun and Petr Drulák .....	181
References .....	193