

CONTENTS

GENERAL INTRODUCTION	9
----------------------------	---

PART I

Justice as Equilibrium throughout History

INTRODUCTION	21
1 Emergence of the Requirement of Justice	23
– Primitive Societies: Keeping the Balance	24
– Egypt of Pharaoh: Submission to a Cosmic Equilibrium	29
– Mesopotamia: Cooperative Behaviour to Maintain Prosperity's Order	33
– Indo-European Societies: Searching for the Common Denominator	37
– The Americas: Arbitrating between Present and Future	40
2 Justice's Major Platforms	45
– The Hebraic Law: Social Equilibrium by Mutual Honesty	46
– The Athenian Democracy: Establishing Political Equality	51
– The Roman Republic: The Calculus of Political Concessions ..	56
– Islam: The Divine and the Practical Equilibriums	62
– China and India: Quest for Universal Harmony	67
3 Justice within Human Rights	75
– Christianity and the New Requirements of Justice	76
– Dynamic versus Immutable Equilibrium	81
– The Struggles against Inequalities	87
– Confirmation of the Democratic Solution	93
– The Era of Human Rights	98
CONCLUDING REMARKS
The Indicator of Justice	104

PART II

Case-Studies on Justice and Equilibriums

INTRODUCTION	111
4 Judges' Balancing Exercise	115
– Selecting what Matters	116
– Weighing the Relevant Elements	121
– No Less, no More	128
– Integrating within the Global Order	135
– No Better Solution Is Possible	142
5 The Calculus of Social Harmonization	151
– Ethical Standards to Evaluate Social Cases	152
– Reciprocal Empathy to Make Coordination of Behaviours Possible	159
– Using Practical Equality to Resolve Issues Arising from Cooperation	162
– Sublimating Individual Interests into Defendable Social Values	166
– Applying Generalization Tests to Find the Most Acceptable Solution	169
6 Equilibrating the Forces of Attraction and Repulsion	173
– Reciprocity: How it Works among Primates	174
– Regulation: How Animals Use Social Roles, Priority and Property Rights	177
– Cooperation: How Life Uses It to Face Competition	181
– Order: How It Emerges Spontaneously	186
– Best Stratedy Selection: How Equilibrium Appears as a Logical Requirement	190
CONCLUDING REMARKS
The Stabiliser of Interactions	197

PART III

The Shaping of Fair Balance Solutions

INTRODUCTION 205

7 Principles of Justice
and the Reasons for their Mixing 207

- Theories of Justice Compatible with a Pluralistic Society 208
- Equality, Moral Hazard and the Enslavement of the Talented 212
- Maximizing Utility, Lack of Information and Uncertainty ... 217
- The Social Contract Theories, Free Riders and Externalities .. 222
- Mixing the Principles of Justice 228

8 Metrics and Dialectics for a Reflective Equilibrium 235

- The Decision as Adjustment 236
- Game Theory's Equilibriums 240
- Emergence of Generalised Reciprocity 245
- Metrics for Trade-Off Exercises 249
- Dialectics of Conciliation 253

9 Social Institutions as Equilibrium Setting Tools ... 261

- Family: Reconciling Altruism with Self-Interest 262
- The State: Neutralizing Arbitrary Forces 266
- Accountability: Supporting the Network of Reciprocities 269
- Free Market: Maximizing Economic Efficiency 272
- Democracy: Consenting to Burdens and Benefits 278

CONCLUDING REMARKS

The Invariable Structure 284