

Table of Contents

|                                                                                                                                                             |          |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| Acknowledgements .....                                                                                                                               | 7 |
| Prologue                                                                                                                                             |          |
| Introduction/Methodological remarks .....                                                                                                            | 9 |
| Chapter One                                                                                                                                          |          |
| The debate on modernity/postmodernity and how this book fits in                                                                                      |          |
| Westphalia and all that .....                                                                                                                               | 13       |
| The modernity-postmodernity shift: two early contributions .....                                                                                            | 16       |
| Elements of a classical debate .....                                                                                                                        | 22       |
| Post-nationalism and global governance .....                                                                                                                | 28       |
| Chapter Two                                                                                                                                          |          |
| Rio as locus classicus for postmodernity                                                                                                             |          |
| Global environmental governance .....                                                                                                                       | 39       |
| What is so postmodern about Rio? .....                                                                                                                      | 51       |
| Chapter Three                                                                                                                                        |          |
| The conceptual matrix of the United Nations                                                                                                          |          |
| Convention to Combat Desertification (UNCCD)                                                                                                         |          |
| Historical milestones and terms of reference .....                                                                                                          | 65       |
| On the socio-economic aspects of desertification:                                                                                                           |          |
| environmental migration and environmental refugees .....                                                                                                    | 74       |
| UNCCD as a tool for sustainable development .....                                                                                                           | 79       |
| The bottom-up approach as UNCCD's post-Westphalian threshold .....                                                                                          | 82       |
| Chapter Four                                                                                                                                         |          |
| Examples from the implementation process of UNCCD                                                                                                    |          |
| Introduction .....                                                                                                                                          | 91       |
| Item 1 Cross-sectoral strategies/National policy formulation .....                                                                                          | 92       |
| 1.1 Elaboration of a National Action Programme (NAP)—Uganda .....                                                                                           | 92       |
| Item 2 Cross-sectoral strategies/National policy evaluation .....                                                                                           | 102      |
| 2.1 Elaboration of national reports—Institutional support toAfrican countries to facilitate submission of their nationalreports at COP 3 .....      | 102      |
| 2.2 Evaluation of national reports—Ad Hoc Working Group(AHWG) session to review national reports, March/April 2001—Wrap up session for Africa ..... | 105      |

|        |                                                                                                                                                                                                        |     |
|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Item 3 | Cross-sectoral strategies/Synergetic implementation of multilateral agreements on environmental and sustainable development issues .....                                                               | 108 |
| 3.1    | Synergies among the Rio Conventions—Blueprint by the UNCCD Secretariat to hold National Coordination Forums in selected countries .....                                                                | 108 |
| 3.2    | Synergies among the Rio Conventions—Report of the National Consultative Forum Uganda, September 2001 .....                                                                                             | 112 |
| Item 4 | Cross-sectoral strategies/Multilateral assistance .....                                                                                                                                                | 116 |
| 4.1    | Global Environment Facility (GEF) Africa Land and Water Initiative .....                                                                                                                               | 116 |
| Item 5 | Partnership agreements/North-South cooperation .....                                                                                                                                                   | 121 |
| 5.1    | Blueprint by the UNCCD Secretariat to hold Consultative Forums in affected African countries .....                                                                                                     | 121 |
| 5.2    | Workshop on the Integration of Priority Activities Related to Combating Desertification into the Country Support Strategies under the ACP–EU Cotonou Partnership Agreement, Cotonou, Benin, 2001 ..... | 123 |
| Item 6 | Partnership agreements/South-South cooperation .....                                                                                                                                                   | 132 |
| 6.1    | Design of a Thematic Programme Network for the Integrated Management of International River, Lake and Hydrogeological Basins in Africa .....                                                           | 132 |
| 6.2    | Launching meeting of the Thematic Programme Network for the Integrated Management of International River, Lake and Hydrogeological Basins, Accra, Ghana, November/December 2000 .....                  | 136 |
| Item 7 | World Conferences .....                                                                                                                                                                                | 139 |
| 7.1    | Concept for a UNCCD Preparatory Conference to the World Summit on Sustainable Development (WSSD), March 2002 .....                                                                                     | 139 |
| 7.2    | Conference proceedings .....                                                                                                                                                                           | 142 |

Chapter Five

Does the spirit of Rio work in a post-postmodern world?

|                                                       |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Johannesburg and the synchronicity of realities ..... | 147 |
|-------------------------------------------------------|-----|

|                         |     |
|-------------------------|-----|
| Conclusion ..... | 157 |
|-------------------------|-----|

Annex

|                  |     |
|------------------|-----|
| Acronyms .....   | 159 |
| References ..... | 160 |