

Contents

1	Democratic Accountability and Political Effectiveness from a Cosmopolitan Perspective David Held	9
2	Global Governance as an Emergent Political Order – The Role of Trans- national Non-Governmental Organisations Michael Zürn	31
3	The Transparency Principle and the Regulation of Corporations Virginia Haufler	47
4	The Role of Non-State Actors in Regulation Bridget Hutter	63
5	Who fills the Legal “Black Holes” in Transnational Governance? Lawyers, Law Firms and Professional Associations as Border-crossing Regulatory Actors Sigrid Quack	81
6	Governing Global Financial Markets – Basel I and II: the Role of Non-state Actors – Bernhard Speyer	101
7	ISO Enters the Field of Social Responsibility (SR) Construction and Tension of Global Governance Kristina Tamm Hallström	117
8	Rationality and Global Governance: Mediating the Conflict over Access to Essential Medicines through Deliberations between TNCs and NGOs Rainer Döbert and Wolfgang van den Daele	157
9	(Trans-)Formations of Civil Society in Global Governance Contexts – Two Case Studies on the Problem of Self-Organization Jeanette Hofmann	179
10	The Changing Role of the State Reflected in the Growing Importance of Non-State Actors Gunnar Folke Schuppert	203

11	The International Federation of Accountants: Private Global Governance in the Public Interest? Christopher Humphrey, Anne Loft, Stuart Turley and Kim Jeppesen	245
----	---	-----