

Table of contents

Interculturalism and discrimination in Romania

FRANÇOIS RUEGG

An introduction 7

Conceptual framework: Interculturalism and citizenship 13

CHRISTIAN GIORDANO

From the crisis of anthropological representations to the advent of prefixes 15

CHRIS HANN

Social anthropological reflections on citizenship 29

Romania 45

RUDOLF POLEDNA

Historical minorities and new immigrants 47

TEODOR NITU

How Romania became “greater”: Reflections on things past and ressentiment 59

CALIN RUS

Multicultural versus intercultural approach towards minority rights 73

The Roma 93

ANDREA BOSCOBOINIK

Ethnicization process among the Roma communities in Bulgaria 95

DANIELA TARNOVSCHI

The construction of a new Roma ethnic identity 105

DOBRINKA KOSTOVA

Living on the periphery: Roma in Bulgaria 135

STEFÁNIA TOMA

Ethnic relations and poverty in a multi-ethnic community in Romania 155

ZSUZSANNA VIDRA

Public discourse analysis in a Hungarian town, 1990-2001: Roma-non Roma relationships 173

A comparative approach in the region	185
MILENA BENOVSKA-SABKOVA In search of one's own self: Identity of the Bulgarian Muslims (Pomaks). A case study from Western Rhodopes	187
DOBRINKA KOSTOVA Borders and Bridges: Multiculturalism in Bulgaria in the period of transformation	203
ALINA ZVINKLIENE Intercultural relations, citizenship, and human rights in the context of Central and Eastern Europe: Parallel societies in the Baltic States	225
ZOLTÁN KANTOR Nationalism, nationalizing minorities and kin-state nationalism	249
Research in interculturalism: two aspects of the question	277
GABRIEL ANDREESCU Romanian research in the field of national minorities	279
ALINE GOHARD-RADENKOVIC Language and education from an intercultural perspective: Essential prerequisites for a European project	289
Forum of ideas	297
VIRGIL CIOMOS Theory and practise of human rights in post-traditional societies	299
SMARANDA VULTUR The image of a good European	309
ADRIAN SEVERIN The Europe of cultural identities: Cultural rights, human rights. A challenge for the European Union	315
ÉDOUARD CONTE Conclusion: The Swiss Schengen Posters. Thoughts on the public expression of xenophobia	319
Contributors	341