

Contents

List of Graphs and Tables	ix
Preface	xi
Abbreviations	xiii

Part I: Introduction

1	Approaching the Privatisation of Security from a Security Governance Perspective Alan Bryden	3
---	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---

Part II: The International Policy Context

2	Fragile Statehood, Armed Non-State Actors and Security Governance Ulrich Schneekener	23
3	Private Sector, Public Security Alyson Bailes	41
4	Insurgencies, Security Governance and the International Community Albrecht Schnabel	65
5	Reconstructing the Public Monopoly of Legitimate Force Herbert Wulf	87

Part III: Regional and National Perspectives

6	Bulgaria's Private Security Industry Philip Gounev	109
7	The Commercialisation of Post-Soviet Private Security Duncan Hiscock	129
8	Challenges of Security Privatisation in Iraq David Isenberg	149
9	Implementing South Africa's Regulation of Foreign Military Assistance Act Raenette Taljaard	167

Part IV: Challenges of Regulation

10	Regulating Military and Security Services in the European Union Elke Krahlmann	189
11	The United Nations and the Dilemma of Outsourcing Peacekeeping Operations Victor-Yves Ghebali	213
12	Assessing the Relationship between Humanitarian Actors and Private Security Companies Christopher Spearin	231
13	Private Security Actors, Donors and SSR Peter Wilson	247

Part V: Conclusion

14	Applying a Security Governance Perspective to the Privatisation of Security Marina Caparini	263
----	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Annex

International Organisations and the Governance of Private Security Jonas Hagmann and Moncef Kartas	285
List of Contributors	305
About DCAF	307
Index	309