

Table of Content

Joachim H. Spangenberg

Editorial
Sustainability Strategies: History, Concepts, Relevance	7

Pia Paust-Lassen/Frieder Otto Wolf

Foreword of the Project Coordinators: The Project context and the on-going perspectives of “Sustainability Strategy”	20
--	----

Part I

Sustainability strategy and policy development: the roots

Ulrich Grober

Deep roots: A brief conceptual history of ‘sustainable development’ – ‘Nachhaltigkeit’	30
--	----

Jane Roddick †

El Niño, El Viejo, and the global re-shaping of Latin America Surviving the UNCED coups: The Policy Conflict behind Sustainable Development	48
--	----

Wolfgang Sachs

From Rio to Jo’burg – Environment and Justice Equity and ecology after Rio	83
---	----

Alain Lipietz

Johannesburg and beyond: A political ecology perspective	99
--	----

Part II

The present sustainability discourse – the state

Joachim H. Spangenberg

Sustainability beyond environmentalism: The missing dimensions	114
--	-----

Frieder-Otto Wolf

Liberation and/or Sustainable Development? On a key problem of green radical politics	150
--	-----

Jill Jäger

Sustainability Science	166
------------------------	-----

Sabine Hofmeister/Ines Weller
National Sustainability Strategies – “Blind Spots” from and for Gender Perspectives – Example Germany	177

Meike Spitzner
Sustainability and societal gender relations – Problems of and alternatives to androcentric concepts of sustainability and the dimensioning of economy, ecology, institutions and sociality	198

Part III

Global perspectives on sustainable development

Joan Martinez Alier
Analysing the Economic Metabolism from Local to Global Sources, Concepts, Cases and Results	224

J.M. Jamil Brownson
American Dreams – Roots and branches of America’s stand alone policies	253

Tian Shi
Chinese Cultural Construction of Harmony Implications for an Ongoing Dialogue on Sustainability	276