

Content

Introduction: The European Public Sphere—A Contested Concept Christoph Bärenreuter . . . . .	7
Radical Democracy and European Debates Cornelia Bruell, Monika Mokre . . . . .	23
The Gap Between Elites and Citizens in European Media Discourse Helmut P. Gaisbauer, Markus Pausch . . . . .	44
Debating National Referenda Ulrike Gröner . . . . .	69
The Social Struggle: a French Peculiarity? Ulrike Gröner, Markus Pausch . . . . .	98
The EU Constitution in a Stereoscopic View: Qualitative Content Analysis and Metaphor Analysis Compared Michael Kimmel . . . . .	119
Debating the skandalon : Causes and Consequences of the French “Non” and the Dutch “Nee” Helmut P. Gaisbauer . . . . .	163
Conclusions: Agonism in the European Public Sphere Cornelia Bruell, Monika Mokre . . . . .	182