

Table of contents

Introduction, by Andrea Bonoldi and Andrea Leonardi	p. 7
Institutional Innovations and Economic Growth in Europe in the Post-World War II Era, by Vera Zamagni	17
Reconstruction Paths in Europe between 1945-1970. Planned and Market Economies Compared, by Peter Csillik and Tamas Tarjan	29
Reconstruction and Resumption of Development in the Yugoslav Republics after World War II, by Ivo Bićanić	43
Post-War Recovery in the South of Italy. Dishomogeneous Development and Regional Differences, by Ezio Ritrovato	63
Occupation and Economic Development. Eastern and Western Austria in a Comparative Perspective, by Franz Mathis	87
Rural Spain during the Franco Regime (1939-1975), by Ernesto Clar and Fernando Collantes	103
A Farewell to Marginality. Development Paths in the Italian Alpine Provinces since World War II, by Andrea Bonoldi	129
Marginal in Strong Areas. The «Mediocredito Regionale Lombardo» and the Organisational Structure of the Medium-Term Corporate Lending Banks under the Guidance of Giordano Dell'Amore, by Pietro Cafaro and Andrea Locatelli	163
Industrial Credit and Special Banks in Relaunching the Italian Banking System after World War II, by Andrea Leonardi	201
Local Credit and Territorial Development. General Aspects and the Italian Experience, by Silvio Goglio	241

On the Boundary of Western Europe. The Marshall Plan and Economic Development in Bavaria, by Maximiliane Rieder	p. 281
Mediocredito Trentino-Alto Adige and its Role in Promoting Entrepreneurship in Trentino and South Tyrol (1954-1972), by Cinzia Lorandini	311
Recovery and Growth in Poland after World War II, by Aleksander Surdej	341
Concluding Remarks, by Alberto Cova	361
Bibliography	371