

Contents

List of Figures and Abbreviations	11
Acknowledgements	13
Chapter 1 The Puzzle of the ESDP	15
1. The Puzzle of St Malo	17
2. Theoretical Challenges	19
2.1 Challenges to European Integration Theory	19
2.2 Challenges to IR Theory	22
2.3 Institutional Design	23
2.4 The Puzzle of EU-NATO Relations	24
3. Historical Institutionalism as an Approach	26
3.1 New Institutionalism	26
3.2 Key Points of Historical Institutionalism	27
3.3 Understanding the ESDP's emergence	28
3.4 Understanding Institutional Structures	30
3.5 Understanding the EU-NATO relationship	31
4. Structure and Research Methodology	32
4.1 Prevailing Themes	32
4.2 Research Methodology	35
4.3 Book Structure	37
Chapter 2 Approaching the Study of the ESDP	39
1. What is the ESDP?	40
2. Approaches to Studying the ESDP	43
2.1 The First Debates	45
2.2 The End of Civilian Power Europe?	47
2.3 Europeanisation: Impacts "up" and "down"	50
2.4 The European Security Strategy	52
2.5 On the Ground	54

3.	How We Got Here: Approaching the Study of the Emergence and Development of the ESDP	55
3.1	Theoretical Considerations: The ESDP as Integration or Cooperation?	56
3.2	ESDP as Integration	59
3.3	The ESDP as International Security Cooperation	67
4.	Conclusions	74

Chapter 3 Towards an Institutional Approach 77

1.	Towards an Institutional Approach	78
1.1	Institutions and the EU	79
1.2	Institutional Interdependence within the EU	80
1.3	An Interdependent Polity in an Interdependent World	80
2.	New Institutionalism	83
2.1	From Old to New Institutionalism	83
2.2	Understanding Institutions: Three New Institutionalisms	85
3.	Research Methodology	102
3.1	Process-Tracing	103
4.	Application of Historical Institutionalism to the Study of the ESDP	104
4.1	Two Explanatory Streams	107
5.	Conclusions	108

Chapter 4 History at Work: Understanding the Emergence of the ESDP 111

1.	The Pre-History of CFSP/ESDP: Dynamics in European Foreign and Security Policy Cooperation, 1945 -1970	112
1.1	The Early Years and Contemporary Parallels	114
1.2	The European Defence Community (1950-54)	117
1.3	The Fouchet Plans: 1960s	120
2.	Learning from Failure; or, a First Success: 1970 – 1990	126
2.1	Why EPC succeeded	126
2.2	Institutional and Functional Expansion	128
2.3	The Western European Union	134
2.4	Lessons to be Learned	135
3.	External Factors as Dynamics Towards an ESDP: The Role and Impact of External Institutions	136
3.1	The End of the Cold War: Geopolitical Change and Institutional Competition	136
3.2	1991-1997: The Common Foreign and Security Policy and Adapting the WEU	138

3.3	NATO and the Common Joint Task Force Initiative	141
4.	The Importance of Historical Analysis	145
4.1	The Amsterdam Treaty	145
5.	British Defence Policy 1945-1998: The Blair "Revolution"?	148
5.1	Continuity in British Defence Policy	148
5.2	Explaining the Blair Policy Change: 1997-1998	150
5.3	Broader Changes	154
5.4	The Policy Shift	156
5.5	Explanatory Limits	158
6.	Conclusions	158
Chapter 5 Explaining the Institutional Design of the ESDP		161
1.	Three Hypotheses on Institutional Design	163
2.	The ESDP Structures	164
2.1	The Political and Security Committee (PSC / COPS)	164
2.2	The European Union Military Committee (EUMC)	167
2.3	The European Union Military Staff (EUMS)	168
2.4	Committee of Contributors	168
2.5	Understanding Institutional Design	169
3.	In Search of Isomorphism	170
3.1	Why not the Western European Union (WEU)?	170
3.2	Specific Problems with the WEU "Model"	172
3.3	The WEU Parliamentary Assembly	173
3.4	Membership Structures	174
4.	NATO as a Model	175
4.1	The North Atlantic Council (NAC)	176
4.2	The NATO Military Committee	177
4.3	The NATO International Military Staff (IMS)	178
4.4	Other Elements of Isomorphism	178
5.	Making Sense of Institutional Isomorphism	181
5.1	Mimetic Isomorphism	181
5.2	Normative Isomorphism	182
5.3	Coercive Isomorphism	184
5.4	Rational Institutional Isomorphism	186
6.	Explaining Institutional Differences	187
6.1	Committee Chairmanships	188
6.2	Committee Seniority	190
6.3	Relationship with Coreper	192
6.4	Committee Structure and "Hierarchy of Concepts"	194
7.	Conclusions	200

Chapter 6	EU-NATO Relations: Institutional Interaction in Action	203
1.	Understanding Institutional Interaction	205
1.1	The "Normal" Approach to the Study of International Institutions	205
1.2	Finding a Term	208
1.3	Types of Interaction / Impact	209
1.4	Reconciling Institutional Overlap	210
2.	EU-NATO Relations	211
2.1	Increasing Overlap	212
2.2	Overlapping Scale	213
2.3	Overlapping Membership	214
2.4	Overlapping Competence	215
2.5	Attempts at Reconciliation	218
2.6	NATO First Refusal?	219
2.7	Division of Labour	221
3.	Moving Towards Coordination	223
3.1	Berlin Plus	224
3.2	Institutional Cooperation and Coordination	229
3.3	The Problems with Berlin Plus	229
3.4	Consequences	234
4.	The Imperative of Coordination: New Mechanisms	235
4.1	The Emergence of Informal Meetings	236
4.2	Informal Document Exchange	238
5.	Conclusions	239
Chapter 7	Conclusions: The Insights of Historical Institutional Analysis	241
1.	Research Questions	241
1.1	Understanding the ESDP's emergence	241
1.2	Institutional Design	243
1.3	The Relationship with NATO	245
2.	Keeping it in Context: Considerations for Future Research	246
2.1	Taking Time Seriously	246
2.3	The Role of Isomorphism	249
3.	In the Final Analysis	249
	References and Bibliography	251
	List of Interviews	271