

Contents

Introduction	7
Laurent Goetschel
 Politics of Peace: Emergence and Critique
1. Origins and State of the Art of Swiss Peace Policy	13
Heinz Krummenacher
2. Peacekeeping through Changing Conditions	27
Tim Guldemann
3. Rethinking Peace, Peace Research and Peacebuilding	45
Laurent Goetschel and Tobias Hagmann
 Old and New Roles of States
4. Between Divergence and Convergence: The State in Peacebuilding	61
Lothar Brock
5. Darfur in the Middle of Crisscrossing Fault Lines that Shape the Sudan: Can Switzerland Help to Promote Peace?	79
Günther Baechler
6. Making War, Building States? Notes on the Complex Interplay between Statehood and Conflict in Africa	95
Didier Péclard
 Civil Society and Business
7. How should Business be involved in Peacebuilding, Conflict Management and Peace Promotion?	107
John Bray
8. Re-Thinking War. The Challenge to Civil Society Peacebuilding in a Post-Iraq Context	121
Mari Fitzduff
9. Reflecting on Non-state Actors in Peacebuilding. Differences and Similarities between Business Actors and Non-governmental Organisations	131
Ulrike Joras

Future of Peace Policy

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 10. | Conflict Prevention and Peacebuilding:
The EU “Holistic” Approach and Instruments
in Support of a more Peaceful World 20 years from now
Marc Van Bellinghen | 139 |
| 11. | Future Fields and Instruments
Thomas Greminger | 151 |
| 12. | Where have all the Flowers gone? Some Reflections, more Questions, and no Single Answer
Cordula Reimann | 159 |

From Research to Practice

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 13. | How can Science contribute to Politics?
Barbara Haering | 175 |
| 14. | Policy Advice: Conditions for Success
Harald Müller | 183 |

Conclusions: The Challenges Ahead 201

Anita Müller

Abbreviations	207
About the Authors	211
Bibliography	217