

Contents

Christiane Hintermann/Christina Johansson Preface	7
Rainer Ohliger Immigration, Museums and Textbooks in Europe: Towards Inclusion and Diversity as Normalcy?	13
I. Representing Migration – Migration Histories, Migrants and Diversity in Textbooks and Classroom Instruction	31
Vanja Lozic/Christiane Hintermann Textbooks, Migration and National Narratives – An Introduction	33
Vanja Lozic The Story about Them: Objectifying Discourses in the Narratives about Swedish Immigration	40
Christiane Hintermann ‘Beneficial’, ‘problematic’ and ‘different’: Representations of Immigration and Immigrants in Austrian Textbooks	61
Yasemin Nuhoğlu Soysal/Simona Szakács Projections of ‘Diversity’ in Citizenship Education	79
Benoit Falaize Labor Migration and Immigration History in French Schools	94
Frank-Olaf Radtke Paradoxes of Intercultural Pedagogy Or: What’s going on with your identity?	110
II. Representing Migration – Museums, Exhibitions and the Heritage Sector	133
Christina Johansson/Christiane Hintermann Museums, Migration and Diversity – An Introduction	135
Mary Stevens “It depends how far back you go...” – Comparing the Representation of Migration in the Heritage Sector in France and the U.K.	145

Christiane Hintermann “...that migration simply and really is the absolute normality” – The Narration of Austrian Immigration History in Exhibitions	162
Christina Johansson Portraying Post-War Migration in Museums and Exhibitions – Some Swedish Case Studies	182
Inge Eriksson Migration, Memory and Locality – Iföverken Industrial Museum in Bromölla, Sweden	203
Authors	222
