

Index of content

| | |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgements | 7 |
| Foreword by Gerald E. Caiden | 9 |
| 1. Introduction: Causes of Corruption – The Right Question or the Right Perspective? Gjalt de Graaf, Patrick von Maravić and Pieter Wagenaar | 13 |
| 2. Max Weber, Bureaucracy, and Corruption, William D. Rubinstein and Patrick von Maravić | 21 |
| 3. Corruption and Anti-Corruption in Prismatic Societies, Frank de Zwart | 36 |
| 4. The Institutional Economics of Corruption, Susan Rose-Ackerman | 47 |
| 5. Understanding Corruption: How Systems Theory Can Help, Petra Hiller | 64 |
| 6. Institutional Design and Good Governance, B. Guy Peters | 83 |
| 7. Constructing Corruption, Gjalt de Graaf, Pieter Wagenaar and Michel Hoenderboom | 98 |
| 8. The Criminology of Corruption, Wim Huisman and Gudrun Vande Walle | 115 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 9. A Multi Approach in Corruption Research: Towards a More Comprehensive Multi-Level Framework to Study Corruption and its Causes Leo Huberts | 146 |
| 10. Concepts, Causes, and the Neglected Third Party: the Victim of Corruption Gjalt de Graaf, Patrick von Maravić and Pieter Wagenaar | 166 |
| Bibliography | 175 |
| List of Authors | 201 |
| Credentials | 205 |