

Contents

ABBREVIATIONS	7
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	9
INTRODUCTION	11
Alternative independent variables	14
The plan of the book	18
Methodology, method and key terminology	22
Operationalisation of key terminology	25
PART 1	35
1. DOMESTIC TRANSFORMATION AND THE FORMATION OF A NEW POLITICAL ELITE AFTER 1989	37
What was the anti-elite like?	40
Conclusion	43
2. THE VALUE PREFERENCES AND IDENTITY OF CZECH SOCIETY AND FOREIGN POLICY MAKERS	45
The silent revolution and the transition from materialism to postmaterialism	47
Is Czech society postmaterialistic? The silent revolution in the Czech Republic	49
Postmaterialism among foreign policy makers	54
Conclusion	58
3. THE HERITAGE OF CZECH DISSENT, AND THE DISSIDENT TRADITION IN CZECH FOREIGN POLICY	61
Terms and methodology: dissident, dissident tradition and living in truth..	63
Dissent and Foreign Policy	72
The tradition of dissent in Czech foreign policy	75
Dissidents and dissident tradition in the Czech Parliament	79
The dissident tradition, the heritage of dissent, and the personnel composition of Czech foreign policy	88
Conclusion	93
4. THE INFLUENCE OF THE EUROPEAN ENVIRONMENT ON CZECH FOREIGN POLICY	95
Conclusion	100
PART 2	103
5. THE OTTAWA TREATY AND THE OSLO AGREEMENT	105
The Czech Republic in the role of upholder and mediator of cosmopolitan values	108

Limitations to Czech principled foreign policy.....	114
Conclusion	118
6. ROME STATUTE AND THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT	123
The Czech Republic in the role of upholder and mediator of cosmopolitan values	124
Limitations to principled Czech foreign policy.....	126
Conclusion	129
7. RESPONSIBILITY TO PROTECT	133
The Czech Republic in the role of upholder and mediator of cosmopolitan values	136
Limitations to principled Czech foreign policy.....	141
Conclusion	141
8. INTERNATIONAL COVENANT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS.....	143
The Czech Republic in the role of upholder and mediator of cosmopolitan values	144
Limitations to principled Czech foreign policy.....	150
Conclusion	158
CONCLUSION	161
BIBLIOGRAPHY	169
INDEX	179