

Contents

Indonesia's Democratic Consolidation: Political, Security, and Economic Perspectives Matthias Heise and Kathrin Rucktäschel	7
Indonesia's Democratic Consolidation under Stress? Bob S. Hadiwinata and Christoph Schuck	19
Indonesia's Challenge: Making Democracy Succeed Franz Magnis-Suseno SJ	23
The Challenge of Civil-Military Relations in Indonesia's Democratic Consolidation: Reforming the Institutional Setting and Military Education Matthias Heise	37
Indonesia's Environmental Policy Related to Forestry Issues: Caught between International Posture and Internal Conditions Kathrin Rucktäschel	67
Rationale for Defending Indonesia: The Case of the Lombok Treaty Adrianus Harsawaskita	97
Interethnic Conflict Management in Indonesia: The Municipality of Denpasar, Bali I Nyoman Sudira	123
Indonesia's Peacekeeping Missions within the "Independent and Active Foreign Policy" Bangkit Rahmat Tri Widodo	143
Dancing with the Dragon: Indonesia and Its Relations to a Rising China Enrico Fels	163
Quintessential Elements of Indonesian Economic Policy in SBY's First Term 2004–2009 Markus Paesler and Katharina Vitt	191

Practicing Democracy in Indonesia: The Involvement of NGO in the Process of Making and Implementing Policies on Labor Migration Sylvia Yazid	211
Fighting Corruption in Indonesia: In Search of Greater Political Will Albert Triwibowo and Aknolt Kristian Pakpahan	233
Stuck in Limbo: Transit Migration in Indonesia Antje Missbach	259
The Indonesian Media between Freedom and Responsibility: A Study of the Ambalat Block Dispute Margareth Yasintha Sembiring	277
Micro, Small, and Medium-Sized Enterprises in Indonesia: Towards More Coordinated Policies and More Competitive-based SME Aknolt Kristian Pakpahan	299
Contributors	319