

CONTENTS

Foreword by the Series Editors	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
List of Contributors	xi
Overcoming the Divide between Religious and Secular Values: Introductory Essay	1
Christoph Jedan

Part I

Religious Traditions, Old and New

Criticisms of Kingship in Ancient Israel	19
Gerlinde Baumann
Submission and Resistance: Christian Communities and Imperial Power in the First Century AD	29
Elian Cuvillier
On Human Rights and Otherness in Levinas and Islamic Mysticism	39
Kasim Küçükalp
Environmentalism as a Civil Religion: The Swedish Case	49
Carl Reinhold Bråkenhielm
Mission, Colonization and Secularization: A Reflection on Evolution within the Global Religious Landscape	67
Jean-François Zorn

Part II

Religious versus Secular Values?

Moderating Religion?	81
Patrick Vandermeersch

Religion versus Liberalism? MacIntyre's Hyperdemocratic Critique of Liberal Democracy	91
Marc Boss
Towards the Postsecular: Rawls and the Limits of Secular Public Reason	109
Christoph Jedan
Rethinking Religion and Politics in Postsecular Europe	121
Erin Wilson
Part III
Religious Political Parties—Dutch Perspectives
Religious Parties in a Secular Society: The Dutch Paradox	141
Paul Lucardie
The SGP—A Natural Relationship between Politics and Religion	155
Evert-Jan Brouwer
History and Basic Ideas of the Christian Democratic Party in the Netherlands	171
Henk Woldring	