

Contents

Summary.....	1
1 Introduction .....	9
2 Methodology .....	15
3 Definition of status in the Member States of the EU .....	21
3.1 Public law status.....	26
3.2 Status as social or professional standing.....	30
3.3 Status as public service ethos.....	40
3.4 Conclusions .....	43
4 Status in a time perspective: reform factors and reform pressures .....	45
4.1 Status in a historical context .....	46
4.2 From public administration to public management and governance: implications for the public status .....	51
4.3 Change of work and work ethos - from status to virtual workplaces.....	55
4.4 Governance and public employment restructuring: new instruments, what effects?.....	60
5 Change of employment and employment conditions .....	67
6 Restructuring public workforce and the impact of austerity measures: towards a new employment structure? .....	75
7 Trend towards more flexible employment features and its impact on central public administration .....	91
8 EU law: limits to flexibility and flexible employment contracts .....	101
9 Future relationship between civil servants and other public employees .....	111
9.1 Distinction between civil servants and other public employees .....	111
9.2 Sectors of civil service employment .....	115
9.3 Reserve of certain functions to civil servants: a new blurring of boundaries .....	119
10 Conclusions .....	127
11 Bibliography .....	137

ANNEX 1: Definition of central public administration.....	143
ANNEX 2: Questionnaire on status developments in the national public services .....	149

List of Figures

Figure 1. Relationship between the traditional bureaucracy - post-bureaucracy continuum and the corruption perception index in EU-27.....	54
Figure 2. Dimensions of public employment restructuring .....	75

List of Tables

Table 1. Different categories of staff in the central public administration by Member State and EC .....	24
Table 2. Differences between civil servants employed under public law and employees under private law in German public administration .....	27
Table 3. Civil servants' legal status by type of administrative system in EU-27 .....	28
Table 4. Public employees' legal status by type of administrative system in EU-27 .....	29
Table 5. Traditional bureaucracy – post-bureaucracy continuum score by EU Member State .....	52
Table 6. Restructuring the public workforce.....	63
Table 7. Public employment restructuring in Portugal .....	64
Table 8. Differences between civil service employment and public employment by policy issue and by EU Member State.....	68
Table 9. Civil servants' legal status by type of administrative system in EU-27 .....	70
Table 10. Public employment trends in general and on central level by EU Member State and European Commission .....	78
Table 11. Trends in public employment by austerity measures in EU-27.....	80
Table 12. Most important reform objectives and reform dilemmas .....	81
Table 13. Is the standard employment model in decline?, by EU-27 and EC ....	83
Table 14. Is lifetime tenure the general form of employment in central public administration?, by EU-27 and EC .....	84