

Contents

Damir Arsenijević Introduction	7
Emina Busuladžić Why?	11
Miralem Ibrišimović My Union Fight	27
Zlatan Begić War, Peace and the Protests	35
Damir Arsenijević Protests and Plenum: The Struggle for the Commons	45
Emir Hodžić Jer me se tiče – Because it Concerns Me	51
Aleksandar Hemon Beyond the Hopelessness of Survival	59
Haris Husarić February Awakening: Breaking with the Political Legacy of the last 20 years	65
Adis Sadiković February Stirrings	71
Emin Eminagić On the University of the People: Protests and Plenums as Sites of Education	79
Igor Štiks and Srećko Horvat The New Balkan Revolts: From Protests to Plenums, and Beyond	83
Stef Jansen Rebooting politics? Or, towards a <Ctrl-Alt-Del> for the Dayton Meantime	89

Larisa Kurtović The Strange Life and Death of Democracy Promotion in Bosnia and Herzegovina	97
Edin Hajdarpašić Democracy in the Conditional Tense: On Protests in Bosnia and Herzegovina	103
Eric Gordy From Antipolitics to Alterpolitics: Subverting Ethnokleptocracy in Bosnia and Herzegovina	111
Asim Mujkić The Evolution of Bosnia and Herzegovina's Protests in Five Theses	119
Jasmin Mujanović The Baja Class and the Politics of Participation	135
Jasmina Husanović Traumatic Knowledge in Action: Scrapbooking Plenum Events, Fermenting Revolt	145
Selma Tobudić Protests and Plenums—A Remembering	155
Vanessa Vasić Janeković Remembering Work as Political Sovereignty	165
Nigel Osborne The Plenum Brain	173
Contributors	181