Bibliography 191

I am pleased to have this book as a part of the Journal of Canadian Studies series published by the University of Toronto. This research group, founded in 1964, currently includes the following fellows and faculty: Bruce Littlewood, a senior lecturer in the Department of Philosophy, University of Toronto; a University of Toronto graduate student, Irena G. Jurek, and Patrick G. Kelly from the Faculty of Arts and Science, University of Regina; a Ph.D. student, Alexander G. S. Lewis, from the Faculty of Law, York University; a Ph.D. student, Jennifer Bowen, from the Department of History, University of Toronto; a Ph.D. student, James Kelly, from the Department of Political Science, University of Victoria; The GRAC has helped to support graduate students from the U.S. and elsewhere and continues to be a source of support for graduate students. He is also a member of the editorial board of Journal of Canadian Studies. The editorial board is grateful for the support and assistance of the editorial board in this regard. I am grateful to both graduate students, Irena G. Jurek and Jennifer Bowen, for their support of my research through their Ph.D. projects. I am also grateful to the Faculty of Law, York University, for their support. I am also grateful to my family for their support.

As the series's managing editor, I have benefited immensely from the support of several people. Most notably, my editorial students, who read all chapters and made many suggestions in both form and substance. This book would not have seen the light of day without their help. I also wish to thank Marie Woods, the Journal's editor, with the assistance of Paul Appleton, of the University of Toronto. It is an absolute pleasure to review and edit his many submissions and suggestions.

I wish to warmly thank all the contributors for their generous support of this collection. His generous support has made this book a reality.

An extra thanks to my wife, Andrea Lapointe, and to my three children, Isabelle, Vincent, and Jeffrey, who make me a happy person.
