

Table of Contents

Klaus Peter Müller The Articles in this Book: Topics, Perspectives, Disciplines.....	1
---	---

Klaus Peter Müller (Mainz) Scotland 2014 and Beyond – Key Contexts of Innocence and Maturity: Scotland, the UK, the EU, the Global & Digital Worlds ...	11
---	----

I. History and Politics

Dauvit Broun (Glasgow) Scotland as Part of the UK: International Law and Medieval History	45
---	----

Catriona Macdonald (Glasgow) The ‘Scotch Accent of Mind’: Historicising the Referendum	55
---	----

Murray Pittock (Glasgow) The British People: Description or Denial?	71
--	----

II. The Media

Neil Blain (Stirling) ‘Project Fear’ in a Longitudinal Context.....	95
--	----

David Hutchison (Glasgow) The Media and the Referendum: Uncharted Waters, Perilous Seas?...	117
--	-----

Peter Jones (Edinburgh) Existential and Utilitarian Nationalism in Scotland.....	137
---	-----

David Martin-Jones (Glasgow) Scotland, Global Gateway Nation: Cinematic Imaginings of Contemporary Scotland	165
---	-----

Miriam Schröder (Mainz/Germersheim) Modern Narratives: Scottish Self-Perceptions at the Time of Devolution	185
--	-----

III. The Law and the Constitution

- William Elliot Bulmer (The Hague)
 The Emergent Scottish Constitutional Tradition:
 Scottish, Nordic and Global Influences..... 201
- Aileen McHarg (Strathclyde)
 The Independence Referendum, the Contested Constitution, and the Authorship of Constitutional Change 225

IV. Scotland, Scottish Society, and Independence in Literature and Literary Studies

- Valentina Bold (Glasgow)
 “What Scotland had, and now has not”: James Hogg’s
The Brownie of Bodsbeck – Regional and National Identities in the Nineteenth Century 259
- Ian Campbell (Edinburgh)
 Double Vision 273
- Gerard Carruthers (Glasgow)
 The Failure of Historicism in Scottish Literary Studies:
 A Case Study Involving the Burns Movement and the Chair of Scottish History and Literature at the University of Glasgow 287
- Ian Duncan (Berkeley)
 The Discovery of Scotland:
 Walter Scott and World Literature in the Age of Union 301
- Margery Palmer McCulloch (Glasgow)
 Listening to the Writers Talk:
 Coming of Age in Scotland 1922-2012 321
- Kirsten Sandrock (Göttingen)
 Postcolonial Perspectives on the Scottish Independence Debate..... 337

V. Participatory, Ethnic, and Sociological Views on Scotland:
Engaged in the Creation of a New Scotland?

Eberhard Bort (Edinburgh) Beyond the Referendum: A New Deal for Local Democracy in Scotland?.....	355
Bashabi Fraser (Edinburgh) Reflections on Nation and Narration from the Perspective of a 'New Scot' in Scotland	379
Deirdre Forsyth (Glasgow) Why I am Voting Yes.....	393
Gill Scott (Glasgow) & Gerry Mooney (Edinburgh) Scotland – New Directions in Welfare?	403
Roland Sturm (Erlangen) Devolution Max, Asymmetrical Federalism and the English Question – Scotland as Catalyst for Constitutional Change in Britain	423
Contributors	439
Index.....	449