

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
David R. Marples Introduction	9
Olga Onuch Maidans Past and Present: Comparing the Orange Revolution and the Euromaidan	27
Taras Kuzio Vigilantes, Organized Crime, and Russian and Eurasian Nationalisms: The Case of Ukraine	57
Marta Dyczok Mass Media Framing, Representations, and Impact on Public Opinion	77
Tanya Zaharchenko A Ukrainian Thesaurus in Russian	95
William Risch EuroRevolution: A Historian's Street-Side Observations	107
Olesya Khromeychuk Gender and Nationalism on the Maidan	123
Natalia Otrishchenko Beyond the Square: The Real and Symbolic Landscapes of the Euromaidan	147
Anna Chebotarivova "Voices of Resistance and Hope": On the Motivations and Expectations of Euromaidaners	163

Svitlana Krasynska Digital Civil Society: Euromaidan, the Ukrainian Diaspora, and Social Media	177
Aya Fujiwara Canada's Response to Euromaidan	199
Uladzimir Padhol and David R. Marples Belarus and Euromaidan: Lukashenka's Response	217
Frederick V. Mills Understanding the Euromaidan: The View from the Kremlin	239
Contributors	261
Index	265