

Inhalt

Introduction. Diversity in Europe: An Interdisciplinary View on Diversity Laura Asarite	7
Part 1: Diversity and otherness	11
From Security Threat to Citizenship Deeds: A Paradigm Shift in European Minority Governance? Tove H. Malloy	13
Belarus and Poland: Autochthonous Minorities in the Borderland Hanna Vasilevich	33
Rejection of “Otherness”: Implications for the Rights of Migrant Workers. The Case of Bosnian Workers in Slovenia Erma Mulabdic	50
Part 2: Diversity and an intercultural/creative milieu	65
The Significance of Lévinas’ Philosophy of the Other for the Intercultural Debate Mirijam Monteiro	67
Factor of Acculturation and its Management with Foreign Students Vita Balama	85
Diversity, Creative Milieu, Innovation: Results of a Regional Analysis for Germany Gerd Grözinger	95

Diversity as a Didactic Principle in Economic Literacy: A Developed Model	108
Ilona Ebbers
Part 3: Diversity and cooperation	127
Poland and Germany in the European Union: Transformation of the Bilateral Relations	129
Elżbieta Opiłowska and Monika Sus
International River Cooperation in Europe: United in Diversity?	143
Jutta Bissinger
Cooperation in the Baltic Sea Region: A Road to More Gender Diversity?	157
Laura Asarite
Diversity in Action? – EU Co-Financed Cultural Cooperation Projects and Diversity within Europe	171
Elisabeth Keller
Part 4: Diversity and territorial integrity/division	187
Escape Routes to Freedom: Via Budapest, Prague and Warsaw to the Federal Republic of Germany	189
Katarzyna Stokłosa
West German and East German Cultures of Remembrance after the End of the Second World War: A Psycho-Historical Perspective of the Ideological Border as a Cause of Different Memorial Processes	203
Gerhard Besier
The Challenge to Territorial Integrity: Kosovo and Beyond	220
Jaume Castan Pinos
About the Authors	237